GENTLE SPRING is getting terribly tired, holding Winter in its lap so long.

JACK McWHINNEY is making things lively in his race for constable. He is well-acquainted, has hosts of friends, is a stiff-backed Republican, and will make a good officer.

DEMOCRATS never worried a President to death by importuning him for an office.—Review.

No; they have a more expeditious plan. When they make up their minds to kill a President they sneak up behind him and bite away at him with a pistol. It takes a good deal less time than the one referred to by our neighbor.

GOVERNOR CULLOM yesterday sent the following nominations to the senate for confirmation: Commissioners of the Joliet penitentiary—Samuel H. Jones, of Sangamon county, and Herman Benz, of Cook county. For commissioners of the Chester penitentiary—James S. Martin, of Marion county, and James T. Cooper, of Madison county.
For trustees of the Illinois Industrial University, Northern Grand Division—Emory A. Cobb, of Kankakee county; Central Grand Division, John T. Pear-man, of Champaign county, and Charles Bennett, of Cook county; Southern Grand Division, Robert N. Paden, of Montgomery county; and for chief inspector of grain for Chicago, John P. Reynolds.

It was a pretty cute trick that was played upon the unsuspecting colored people. The report was industriously circulated that they would not be admitted to the reserved seat circle last night, with the expectation that the threatened distinction would make every one of them fearfully anxious to be there, just to test the matter. No other plan could have been hit upon that would have resulted in drawing so many people—both white and colored—to the opera house. Jack Haverly is up to more advertising dodges than any man we know of, and he is generally very liberal in paying the newspapers for their assistance. The question now is, How much did the Review get for helping to "fire the African heart" for Haverly's benefit, or did our usually cute neighbor innocently fall into the trap that Jack set for him?

HENRY A. STORRS can always be depend upon to say a good thing at the right time. A few evenings ago, at a Republican mass meeting in Chicago, where there is a lively city campaign going on, Storrs said he had never bolted, he had never seen the time when the Republican party was so bad that it was not better than the Democratic party. He had never seen its men so bad that they were not better than the best of Democrats. Behind the bad men in the Republican party, if there be any, and behind the bad officeholders of the Republican party, if there be any, there was the great body to keep them true.

Behind the Democrats, even though naturally a good man, there was that great, hungry party, that would not permit him to be such if he would.
The best of men might be elected to Congress by the Democrats, and he might wish to do right, but there was the sneer behind to take care of him.
Emery evidently did not have the fear of our Decatur Democratic boss before his eyes when he thus arraigned the Bourbon party.

It is asserted by some who have had private letters from Paris that Kate Spreng has just had prepared there one of the most magnificent outfits ever brought to America. Hand embroidery of the richest style and hand painted have been lavished upon her toilets.

WHITE AND COLORED POPULA-TION.

The total population of Illinois is 3,078,769—of which 3,032,174 are white, 46,248 colored. In 1870 the number of colored persons to the 100-000 white persons was 1,445, in 1880 it was 1,525, a slight increase. The report of the Census Bureau says: The greatest proportion of colored to white is in South Carolina, where three-fifths of the whole are colored. In Louisiana and Mississippi, from one-half to three-fifths are colored. In Alabama, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina and Virginia, the colored form one-third to one-half of the total. In Arkansas and Tennessee, from one-fourth to one-third of the total population are colored.
The least proportion among the former slave States is in West Virginia, where there are but 4,355 to 100,000 whites, and in Missouri, where there are but 7,168.

Outside of the former slave States, the proportion of negroes is very small.

The great relative gains in population during the decade have apparently been made in the South—the former slaveholding States. Of the nine of these States which have gained, eight stand at the head of the list, having made relative gains ranging from 944 to nearly 11,000. It is believed by the Census Office, however, these apparent gains are due, in a great measure, to the imperfections of the census of 1870.
Under the conditions which prevailed at that time, it is probable that a much larger proportion of negroes were omitted than of whites. Of the former slave States which have lost, Texas and Florida lead. Both these States have received heavy white immigration from all parts of the country, which has more than overbalanced whatever gain in colored population may have been made. They have been the scene of rapid development, and thus the relative decrease of blacks is to be accounted for, not by an exodus, or a dying out, but by an infusion of whites. The movement of blacks in the Northern and Western States has apparently been of little comparative account.
The migration of negroes has not attained to such dimensions as to be perceptible here. The States from which the exodus principally took place, Mississippi, Louisiana and North Carolina, have all apparently gained heavily in relative proportion of blacks, while Kansas, to which the major part went, has lost in proportion to its increase in population, and Indiana has gained but slightly.

The census table show that, of the total population of the United States in 1880, 97.14-109 per cent. live on the Atlantic Slope, 45-103 per cent. in the Great Basin, and 2.41-100 per cent. on the Pacific Slope.

THE number of immigrants landed at Castle Garden during the year 1889 was 320,800, the largest number in one year since the establishment of the Immigrant Commission in 1847. This year bids fair to eclipse the figures of its predecessor. From January 1 to March 26, inclusive, in 1880, the arrivals at Castle Garden were as follows: January, 5,677; February, 7,904; March, 12,939. From January 1 to March 26, inclusive, 1881, the arrivals at Castle Garden were as follows: January, 8,082; February, 9,753; March, 19,583. This shows an increase of 10-898 for this year so far, 84 days.

It is now announced that the terms of peace between the British and Boers are as follows: The Boers are to acknowledge the sovereignty of the Queen, but are at the same time to enjoy complete self-government. The President of Transvaal is to be appointed on the royal commission with three commissioners to represent England. The Boers are to withdraw from Laingsnek and return home, the British forces under Sir Evelyn Wood to remain pending the report of the commission and final settlement. Public sentiment in England would not permit of a longer continuance of the war, and the government is glad to get peace at any price.

A VERY interesting operation was performed in the Toronto General Hospital recently. It consisted of amputation, by means of electricity, of the left leg at the hip. The patient, a young man, being reduced very much by the sloughing of an open wound on the outside of the leg, it was desirable that he should lose as little blood as possible.
Having placed the patient under the influence of ether, the customary flaps were made, and then a platinum wire attached to the two poles of a galvanic battery was encircled round the leg under the flaps. In a moment this wire was brought to a white heat, and began to cut its way through the limb. By the great heat the ends of the arteries were contracted, and only the larger ones required to be tied. Many of the leading surgeons of the city and a large number of students from both schools were present.

ALEXANDER, of Russia, has a salary of $10,000,000 a year. The President of the United States has $50,000.
Quite a difference indeed, and yet there are many who think the American Executive gets too much. If he received but a thousand a year, some one would say he is none too good to live on pork and potatoes, and raise both of them himself. There are all kind of ideas in America, and what makes it worse, everybody insists on his right to express what he thinks.

Mrs. Blaine and the Democratic "Senators."

Mrs. Blaine had been in Washington some years before Mrs. —, wife of a Democratic senator, called on her. At last Mrs. — was announced one day.
As Mrs. Blaine entered her drawing-room to receive her guest, she noticed the colored cook slip out hurriedly from the reception-room where Mrs. — was waiting. This surprised her, but she said nothing. Next day, however, her valuable cook left her to find a place in Mrs. —'s kitchen. At a state dinner soon afterwards given at the executive mansion, these ladies chanced to be placed with only a seat between them at table. The gentleman sitting between them noticing that Mrs. Blaine did not address a word of conversation to his other neighbor, exclaimed: "Why, Mrs. Blaine, you know Mrs. Senator —, do you not?" "No," was the answer, loud enough for all around to hear.
Mrs. — called the other day at my house on my cook, and her card was handed to me by mistake. My cook returned the call."

Democratic Leadership.

Ben. Hill, when he was howling "traitor," "treachery," "sell out" and "dishonor to Virginia" at Mahone, forgot that the National Democratic Committee, an organization that was a national blunder, took especial pains at a certain stage of the late Presidential campaign to recognize the debt-payers as the only real Democracy of Virginia, and read Mahone out of the party.
The committee kicked him out, and Ben wanted to kick and cuff him in. And this is called leadership.

THE Morey letter forgery case will again come up before one of the courts in New York soon. James O'Brien, alias Robert Lindsay, who was brought on from Maryland and swore on the examination that he had seen the mythical H. L. Morey, to whom the forged communication purporting to have been written by President Garfield was addressed, is now and has been for months confined in the Tombs, having, it is alleged, confessed the entire plot and pleaded guilty to the indictment for perjury found against him. Henry L.
Morey, of Lynn, Mass., who swore that he was the uncle of the mythical Morey, and who confessed his perjury, is in the house of detention. The cases of both these men will be disposed of in the general sessions next week. Morey, having confessed his guilt and assisted the authorities, will be discharged unconditionally. O'Brien, alias Lindsay, who has grown tired of his incarceration in the Tombs, and has asked to be sent as speedily as possible to his final destination, will be brought up and sentenced to a term in the state's prison.
The criminal proceedings instituted against Kenneth Philp, the alleged writer of the article commenting on the letter, and Joseph Hart, Louis P. Post, and Charles A. Byrne, publisher and editors of the paper in which the libel was published, will be abandoned, unconditionally. O'Brien, alias Lindsay,

A WASHINGTON special to the Milwaukee Republican says that "in the contest over the question of calling an extra session, Secretary Windom showed his strength. The panic that seemed to strike so many public men did not affect Mr. Windom in the least, although his department and his administration of the finances must bear the brunt of the mistake, if the refusal to call a session should prove to be one.
He went calmly at work to show that the necessities of the treasury were not such as to justify an extra session of congress." The President will find that Senator Windom has a clear mind, a level head, and does not often make a mistake.

PEOPLE have queer ideas as to the power of the President. A colored man called on President Garfield the other day and insisted on an interview.
He was very indignant because they wouldn't let him in. His wife had run off with another man, he said. He came to see the President to appeal for advice in the premises and assistance in carrying that advice into effect. A small sized boy, from Georgia, who listened to his story as told the door-keeper, advised him to shoot the other man, and he finally went away to do it.

AN incident worthy of note happened the other day while Senator Johnston, of Virginia, was making a speech.
Mrs. Johnston occupied a seat in the gallery, and near her stood to Virginia Headquarters. When the Senator bore down heavily on General Mahone and Mr. Riddleberger, one of them said: "Listen to the old liar! He says he is a Democrat, when he was an old Whig and Know-Nothing." Mrs. Johnston at once turned to him and said: "You are mistaken, sir. He was born a Democrat, reared a Democrat, and will die a Democrat. I ought to know as I am his wife." There was a speedy retreat of the couple.

St. Louis, March 30.—Gen. Grant, accompanied by Mrs. Grant, U. S.
Grant, jr., and wife; Senor Romero, ex-Mexican minister to the United States; Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Sharpe, and N. E.
Dawson, the General's secretary, arrived between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning by the Vandalia line, en route to Mexico. The party took quarters for the night at the Lindell hotel and left at 9:15 this morning by the Iron Mountain road. The General stated to a reporter just before the train started that this trip to Mexico is in the interest of the Mexican Southern railroad, of which he is president, but partly for recreation and rest. He would not talk about politics. The party will be absent about two months.

CONKLING.

His Wrathful Attitude.

Another "Worst of the Season" Snow Storm.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The recent cabinet complications continue the subject of earnest speculation. It is definitely and positively reaffirmed that the President will not withdraw the nominations of either Chandler or Robertson, no matter how the result of their confirmation may affect his cabinet.
The general opinion appears to be that Garfield has no other reasonable course left him but to stand his ground, inasmuch as to withdraw either of them is to leave the opposition to his administration precisely where it is to risk the sacrifice of Blaine. The President is evidently of the same belief that a retrograde movement settles nothing, and plunges him still deeper in the mire of factional bitterness. It is unquestionable that he knew all the unpleasantness would arise before the nominations were made. In the case of Chandler he had fair warning from Mr.
MacVeagh beforehand and coolly accepted the possible alternative of THE LATTER'S RESIGNATION.

There was no less positive knowledge of the effect of Robertson's nomination.
The President had previously consulted Mr. Conkling as to the nomination of Robertson as successor to Stewart L.
Woodford, New York, attorney for the southern district of New York. The mere mention of Robertson's name in the connection shrew Conkling into a passion. The senator from New York took no pains to conceal his antagonism to such a nomination, and boldly declared he would be compelled to use his influence in the senate to prevent Robertson's confirmation in case the suggested nomination was made. So far as this goes, the statement that Mr.
Garfield did not consult the New York senators as to Robertson is apparently erroneous. He consulted him just far enough to learn that the selection of Robertson for any important office in New York would be highly objectionable to those who were presumed to have rights in the matter, and then sent in the name for a position for which he was fully aware Mr. Robertson would be still more objectionable to Mr.
Conkling. With this new view of the case Mr. Conkling was filled with wrath.
From a mere disregard of his wishes it became

A STUDIED INSULT to the Senator from New York. The way out of this muddle is not so clear.
It matters very little what becomes of either Chandler or Robertson now, as the hostility of the Stalwarts is thoroughly aroused. Their recognized organ in this city voices them. It charges that the Blaine-Garfield onslaught upon Conkling and his friends is in the interest of a second term for the newly installed President. It would appear rather early for the beginning of a fresh Grant campaign, but the manipulation of the appointing power in opposition to the friends of Grant provokes it.
To this complexion it has come, not at last, but at the very first. The result is apparent. No matter whether Blaine or Garfield is the moving spirit, it loses the new Administration the sympathy and support of a respectable and powerful wing of the Republican party in Congress, where not a single vote is to be spared, and the sympathy and support of a respectable body of people throughout the country. This record for one short month as a conciliator is not far behind the late lamented Hayes. The immediate result of antagonizing any portion of

THE PARTY IN CONGRESS is suggested by the presence of Attorney General MacVeagh on the floor of the Senate to-day in consultation with Chamberlain and Conkling and leading Democrats. The latter are very much opposed to Chandler, and there is no doubt but they will vote against him nearly as a unit. MacVeagh makes a good case against Chandler—that he is no lawyer, but a mere machine politician, while the office of Solicitor General demands a lawyer of ability and reputation. The plan to defeat Chandler is also the plan which will defeat Robertson. It is a bargain and trade, and is not new to the senate of the United States. For 80 many Republican votes to beat Chandler, just so many Democratic votes will be given to beat Robertson. This new aspect is cheering to a nation of both Republicans and Democrats. It is confidently stated to-night to those supposed to know that such an arrangement will be successfully carried out. When the plan is in working order, look out for an executive session. In the mean time both Chandler and Robertson, as soon as they see the tide thus setting dead against them, will ask their names withdrawn and be spared defeat.

MENDOTA, ILL., March 30.—An insane woman was put off the cars here yesterday. She had a through ticket from New York to California. From the time she got on the cars in Chicago until she arrived here, she was laboring under the impression that the conductor was taking her back to New York, and it was with difficulty she was prevented from jumping the cars, which she attempted to do several times. Mrs. Taylor, of the Passenger House here, had a servant to take charge of her and attend to her wants, but she declined the most tempting food, and partook of nothing but tea, which she drank three or four times during the afternoon and evening.
Every effort to ascertain her name or that of any of her relatives was met by an obstinate refusal to disclose it or give any information that would lead to her identity. She was plainly dressed, had nothing but a small valise and a small parcel done up in a shawl strap, which she tenaciously kept with her.

She had some money, but no one could ascertain how much. She looked about 45, bore a haggard expression, and seemed to be completely run down.
Though of a matronly appearance, she stated that she was not married, never had any children, had no relatives or friends. She was given in charge to the conductor of the midnight passenger, and resumed her journey westward.
It is thought she has run away from her home and friends, and it is feared that some evil may befall her before she reaches her destination.

ANDERSON, IND., March 30.—The heaviest snow storm of the season visited this section yesterday and last night. It is still snowing, and there is about sixteen inches of snow on the level. The railroads are considerably troubled.

DETROIT, MICH., March 30.—A heavy, damp snow storm prevails here, with, however, but little wind.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—A severe snow storm has been raging here all day, but the snow melts as fast as it falls.

NEW YORK, March 30.—A severe rain storm prevailed all day, accompanied by wind fifty miles an hour. The tide was the highest of the year. The New Jersey lowlands are flooded, and the storm is very heavy along the coast.

LONDON, March 31.—A bulletin at 1:30 this morning says Beauchamp's unchanged condition causes the greatest anxiety to his friends.

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—A private dispatch from Las Vegas, N. M., says that James Currie, the murderer of Porter, the actor, was shot and killed in that place March 24. Currie, it appears, was on a drunken spree, and threatened to kill several people.
Among the persons threatened was the bartender of a saloon, who shot Currie in self-defense. A party of railroad hands, friends of the dead man, attempted to lynch the bartender, but the Sheriff succeeded in getting him to jail.
A Coroner's inquest was held, and the jury returned a verdict of shooting in self defense.

PILES! PILES! PILES!
A Sure Cure Found at Last. No One Need Suffer.

A sure cure for the Blind, Bleeding, Itching and ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian remedy), called Doctor Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic case of 25 and thirty years' standing. "No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, Instruments and Electrocauteries do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching particularly at night after getting warm in bed, acts as a powerful, gentle instant and permanent relief, and is prepared either for Piles, itching of the private parts, and not unpleasant.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Collingberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used scores of pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Will-iam's Pile Ointment."

JACK HAVERTY'S "Colonial Colored Minstrels" came to Decatur yesterday morning and during the afternoon gave a free exhibition street parade which savored strongly of a circus in fly time. Last evening long before the doors opened, the hall leading to the opera house began to fill up with a surging crowd of humanity, all anxious to secure tickets and procure good seats. Soon after 8 o'clock the hall was completely filled from "pit to dome," and all the available standing room was taken up. It was a model fat house, the total receipts being $399.05. The performance was one of gigantic proportions, and while nothing was said or done that any one could take exceptions to, still the entertainment as a whole was a disappointment to the majority of the audience. Billy Kerasands and Tom McIntosh makesplendid end men and are the life of the company in the specialty business. The "Cooonville Guards" parade" would be a pleasing feature if it were not for the wearisome introduction. The musical success of the evening was the singing by the Hampton Sextette who might have remained on the stage for an hour had they responded to the calls. The famous Bohee Brothers are finished artists in the song and dance line, and were among the prime favorites of the evening. Mr. Boher's "Home, Sweet Home," on the harp, was a rich treat. Hunter's imitations were truly wonderful. The entertainment concluded with the "Freedman's Festival," which introduced several amusing burlesques on a circus.

REN. W. DILLEHUNT, son of Mrs. M. A. Dillehunt, of this city, now a resident of Indianapolis, who had his leg broken in a railroad accident near Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 24, 1880, on the Vandallia Railway, and has since been confined to his home, has effected a settlement with the Vandallia company. Ren has accepted $5,000, the company paying all expenses incurred during his sickness. It will be remembered that Mr. Dillehunt, who is now so far recovered from his injury as to be able to use crutches when moving about, at the time of the accident was attending to his duties as mail clerk in a postal car, and had no time to escape when the car jumped the track and fell into a ravine, one end of the shattered house on wheels pinning Ben to the earth, where he was subsequently found in an insensible condition.

The 50th snow storm of the winter which prevailed with such fury near Chicago yesterday, interfered with the running of trains south bound from that city. The through express on the Chicago Division of the Wabash was unable to reach Decatur on account of the snow drifts and it was abandoned; consequently no Chicago papers of yesterday morning reached this city until this morning. This locality this afternoon was visited by another snow storm which promises to continue for several hours. And yet if we go by the almanacs we are forced to call this "spring weather."

Mrs. R. C. HAMMER has just returned from the East after an absence of two weeks, which was spent in selecting a large and elegant line of Spring Millinery, with a view of suiting the tastes of her many patrons. Call and see those French Patterns; they are beauties. Old stand, No. 21 Central Block. March 31 -d&wif

The protracted cold weather has seriously affected the growing wheat crop in Macon county. Farmers report that in some places the crop will be nearly a total failure, but the average is very large, and the yield, it is thought, will be as big as that of last year.

To-night is the social, sociable and festive at the First M. E. Church, and luncheon will be served at 5 o'clock to all who prefer taking their supper with the ladies. -to-night, everybody.
